Editorial Process

Stage 1: The author submits a manuscript and will receive a paper ID.

Stage 2: Immediately after submission, the journal's Managing Editor will perform an initial check to assess:

- (1) Overall suitability of the manuscript to the journal;
- (2) Manuscript adherence to high quality research and ethical standards;
- (3) Standards of rigor to qualify for further review.

Stage 3: Peer review and revision — all manuscripts are sent for peer review.

Stage 4: Acceptance for publication.

Stage 5: Completion of APC payment (plus VAT, where applicable). No further charges will be incurred.

Stage 6: Technical/copyediting, layout, and proofreading.
