Aims and Scope

Studies in Law and Justice (ISSN 2958-0382) is a peer-reviewed journal published bimonthly by Pioneer Academic Publishing Limited. This journal welcomes high quality, theoretically informed papers in the fields of socio-legal studies and the psychology of law, criminology and social justice studies. Studies in Law and Justice provides a comparative and international overview of law and justice from a cross-cultural perspective. As a peer-reviewed journal, the journal encourages the submission of articles that focus on crime and broadly defined justice-related topics in an international and/or comparative context. Articles may focus on a single country or compare issues affecting two or more countries.

The main subject areas include, without being limited to the following:

- Constitutional Law
- Criminal Law
- Civil Law
- Islamic Law
- Environmental Law
- Human Rights
- International Law
- Interconnection Studies with Legal Studies

Submissions

We are seeking submissions for the forthcoming issues. Authors should submit manuscripts written in professional English. Manuscripts with 3,000-10,000 words in length are preferred. All manuscripts should be prepared in OpenOffice, Microsoft Word, or RTF document file format. Editorial Process

Stage 1: The author submits a manuscript and will receive a paper ID.

Stage 2: Immediately after submission, the journal’s Managing Editor will perform an initial check to assess:

- (1) Overall suitability of the manuscript to the journal;
- (2) Manuscript adherence to high quality research and ethical standards;
- (3) Standards of rigor to qualify for further review.

Stage 3: Peer review and revision — all manuscripts are sent for peer review.

Stage 4: Acceptance for publication.

Stage 5: Completion of APC payment (plus VAT, where applicable). No further charges will be incurred.

Stage 6: Technical/copyediting, layout, and proofreading.
